TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the future great City of the world." This line, the has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is possitively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleepin Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretend to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that

The "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourselves and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES MCCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Friday. September 12th, 1873.

A Brave Man and True.

Under the above head the Raleigh News publishes an extraordinary article in relation to R. A. SHOTWELL, who is confined in the Albany penitentiary, and who, we are informed, "refuses to accept the pardon which has been offered him by President Grant, because it is coupled with conditions which he regards as reflecting on his honor as a gentleman." This, we suppose, may be called high-toned. This man is represented as being young, educated and highly connected, and consequently he is not as guilty as some older, ignorant man, who wore a mask, and rode with the gentlemanly Shotwell on their midnight raids!

Of the terms offered to this heroic kuklux by President Grant, we do not speak advisedly, but what a spectacle is here presented. The News admits that young Shotwell was a kuklux, acknowledges that he was convicted in a United States Court, but adds that he denied the statements made under oath by the witnesses against him! If the News will go over the State's Prison, we will wager that nine out of ten of all the men confined there will say the same thing. And Shotwell, now in a penitentiary, charged and convicted of crime, cannot accept pardon of the President, because "it is coupled with conditions which he regards as reflecting on his honor as a gentleman!"

And again, the News, speaking editorially for Shotwell, says:

He believes the conditions are degrading, and therefore he elects to suffer on in solitary confinement, in the darkness of the dungeon, rather than regain his liberty at the sacrifice of self-respect and of principle. He prefers physical torture and chains rather than to purchase his freedom with dishonor and ignominy.

Was it "principle" that induced this unfortunate young man to ride with the Kuklux? Did he maintain his self-respect while a member of a gang of disguised murderers and assassins that required the strong arm of the law to suppress? As a member of this klan, even if he were not a participant, he must have been cognizant of its doings, but this was all honorable according to the News. It is no dishonor to be confined in the State's prison for being a Kuklux! There is no ignominy in imprisonment for crime, if only committed under the sanction of the Invisible Empire! This seems to be the way the News puts it.

Our cotemporary, after saying it does "not seek to mitigate the offenses which Shotwell may have committed," cooly adds the following brilliant paragraphs as a finale to the song:

But whatever may be Shotwell's guilt, he has borne himself in his incarceration like a true and brave man, and in a way which must command the respect of his bitterest enemies.

In his refusal to accept the pardon of the President, offered to him a few days ago, because that pardon contained degrading conditions, he exhibits a moral courage and devotion to principle which show that he is compounded of stuff of which heroes are made, and that he is willing to sacrifice comfort, ease and personal liberty rather than to commit an act of self-degradation and dishonor.

Who had not rather be R. A. Shotwell—so condemned, so imprisoned, so manacled in a felon's cell, than to breathe the air of freedom bought with the price of honor, or to revel in wealth and luxury purchased with cowardly submission and apostacy?

A true man! Was he true to his family when he joined this midnight gang of raiders? Was he true to his country and her laws when swearing secresy over crimes to be committed, or planning new ones? Was he true to Almighty God when a witness or a participant in the terrible outrages committed by his disguised brethren? He may bear himself like a true man, but it is far from our idea of true manhood. His "moral courage and devotion to principle" is good. Very good. More pious in fact than poor Warren, who loved the South so, and regretted he hadn't come here and fought for "southern rights." And of the "stuff of which heroes are made." This is another good expression. 'Tis so heroic to have been a kuklux and to suffer martyrdom for devotion to principle! Fox's book of martyrs is played out now. This noble Roman, the envy of the gallant and brave, a model for young men, occupying a felons cell for a felony committed, is held up by the News as a noble example to young men.

We know but little of Shotwell, or of his case, but we know this; he was arrested, tried, and convicted a felon, and is now in prison, and it is too late in the day for a paper to talk of integrity, honor, true manhood, etc., in connection with a man who has received a judgement of that nature. We are astonished at the News. Its article is too highfalutin. Let it come down and be more practical.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

— At Chicago the regular meeting of the Board of the Inter-State Industrial Exposition was held, when it was resolved to open the exposition on the evening of Thursday, the 25th inst.

— J. Bath and three others of the men supposed to have been smothered in the Lincoln mine, Amador county, California, have been taken out alive. They were shut up in the mine thirty-six hours. Two of the men in the mine were drowned while trying to reach the shaft before the water had been lowered.

— During the month of August permits to the number of eight hundred and sixty were issued for new buildings and alterations and additions to old ones in Philadelphia. Of these six hundred and fifty-one were dwellings and thirteen factories.

— The committee on securities of the New York Stock Exchange has revoked the notice of July 25, suspending bonds of the State of North Carolina, bearing date of April 1, 1861,, Nos. 3,001 to 3,250, of $1,000 each, andsigned Henry T. Clark, Governor. These bonds are now registered to their former status, and are in good delivery as old bonds.

— Manzi, a celebrated brigand in Southern Italy, has been captured by the police, and his band, which consisted of only nine persons, hunted down and extirpated. The prefect of Salerno has in this case solved the brigand problem. He did not set on foot a ponderous military expedition, but enlisted a band of mountain scouts, who fought the brigands according to their own tactics.

— The National Pork Packers' Convention met in Myers' Opera House, Chicago, Ill., at 11 o'clock Wednesday, and was called to order by Col. John L. Hancock, who, on behalf of the pork packers and provision dealers of Chicago, welcomed the delegates, and expressed the hope that the session of the Convention would be both pleasing and profitable. Col. John L. Hancock was elected temporary President, and B. F. Howard temporary Secretary. Delegates were present from eighteen States. A motion inviting representatives of granges of farmers' clubs to seats on the floor as visitors was agreed to. An invitation to attend a mass meeting of live stockmen, provision dealers and packers, at Kansas City, on the 17th instant., was accepted, Committees on credentials, permanent organization and business were then appointed.

— The New York Senate Committee on Transportation met at the Fifth Avenue Hotel on the 10th instant. There were present Senators Windom, Warner, Sherman, Davis, Conkling and Conover. The session was devoted to preliminary business and organization. There was a mass meeting at the Cooper Institute Wednesday night, presided over by Mayor Havemeyer. Senator Windom, of the Congressional Transportation Committee, was present. Speeches were made by F. D. Moulton, S. L. Husted, A. W. Tenney and others, and resolutions adopted that an association be formed to be known as the New York Cheap Transportation Association; that the policy of the Government should be to protect the producing interests and commerce from corporations and monopolies; that double track railways are necessary; that reform in railway management is essential; that uniform freight rates should be adopted; that legislation favorable to American shipbuilding should be had, and they demand a wise and liberal policy by State and municipal Legislatures, and the exercise of energy, skill and sound judgment by merchants to secure the lowest prices for the transportation of merchandise by land and water.

The Baltimore Gazette thinks Longfellow's genius has faded. It says: "Time was when he could dip a little water from the sacred springs, but now the fountain flows no more for him.—The wheezing of the pump alone is heard. Instead of the gush of posey we have only the dry hiccough of imperfect 'suction,'"

Why will these scientific men frighten us so? They are continually trying to bully us with a comet, or the conjunction of half a dozen planets, or some other horrid thing that does not give us a ghost of a chance. Now Professor Winchell says that the earth is continually cooling, and in doing so is absorbing water, and in time its thirsty crust will not only drink up the ocean, but even the atmosphere, and then the dry and shriveled old globe will go meandering through space without a living thing on its surface. And the sarcastic Professor calls this kind of talk "recreations in popular science."

Cleopatra conquered Cæsar at twenty-one.

A Dangerous Experiment.

A barber at Lampasas, Texas, thought it was queer he had never seen a white door-knob in that State, and he put one on his front door. No sooner was the job finished than the citizens began to fire at the choice target and the barber retired to the cellar until the knob was shot off. His door opens now with a string running through a bullet-hole.

OTTO SCHULTZE, Observer, U. S A.

WILMINGTON can boast of probably what no other Southern city can—a lady book-keeper. She is said to be A 1.

ALEXANDER LORD was released from jail yesterday, he having paid the costs for which he was held.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor W. P. CANADAY, Mayor, presiding.

Two persons, charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $10 and costs each.

REV. W. S. PLUMMER, D. D.—This eminent and aged divine will preach in the session room in the rear of the First Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning at 10½ o'clock.

GRADES ADOPTED BY THE PRODUCE EXCHANGE.—For the convenience of our readers who may not be posted in regard to the lettering of rosin, we publish in another column, in a tabular form, the letters and the corresponding grades.

THE JAIL is in excellent condition, though Sheriff Black has quite a large number of involuntary boarders. Among them is a young colored woman who is so noisy and insubordinate that she is often obliged to be chained to keep her quiet.

CONTEMPT OF COURT.—Squire Gardner sent up a man for ten days to-day for contempt of Court. The law must be enforced, and the dignity of Courts maintained. When the offender was turned over to the Sheriff, he declined to go to jail, and said he would give bond.

HABEAS CORPUS.—Hon. R. S. French will apply to Judge Russell for writ of habeas corpus for David S. Massey, charged with forgery, in order to reduce his bond. It will be remembered that he is charged with forging checks on the Bank of New Hanover, and is held in two cases, in the sum of five hundred dollars each.

CLARENDON SALOON.—This popular saloon is being re-papered and re-painted for the Fall and Winter trade. The genial proprietor (Bob Scarborough) knows his business, and is always ready and anxious to wait upon his customers. Meals are furnished at all hours, and the house is kept open day and night. Give him a call.

PRODUCE EXCHANGE.—This institution has proven itself a source of material benefit to, and supplied a long felt need among the business men of our city. Their present place of meeting will soon be exchanged for a place much better adapted to the wants of the members of the Exchange. The walls will be covered with bulletin boards, and there will be a separate board for each of the following heads: Sales, exports, receipts, latest market by telegraph, stock and general remarks. Under the heard of sales come rosin, with its various lettered classifications, spirits, crude turpentine, tar and cotton.

A CHILD LOSES ITS WAY.—We noticed this morning a timid little white girl, about five years old, on the corner of Sixth and Market streets, crying piteously. Upon enquiring the cause of her tears, she said that her mother had sent her on an errand, and that she had lost the way. She was unable to tell where she lived, or where she was going. She was taken in charge by Aunt Becky Robinson, who was doing everything in her power to quiet the child, and to find the home of the little wanderer.

Parents cannot be too cautious in sending their little ones through the streets, for there are always boys on the street who take a delight in teasing and hurting smaller children; besides there is danger of their being run over by horses and seriously injured for life, if not killed outright.

— Why don't the Sheriff of Brunswick send up the election returns?

— The POST has received new subscribers every business day for many days. And yet there's room.

— "Jim" King, the skillful knight of the tonsorial art, has gone to Virginia for a brief period. His friends think he is to be interviewed by the Herald correspondent.

MISSING.—Master Edward Price, one of the POST carrier boys, left his home yesterday arternoon to take his papers around, and up to 3 o'clock to-day had not returned home. He left this office yesterday afternoon, as usual, with his papers, and we have been unable to find any one who can give any information as to his whereabouts.

WILMINGTON CITY DIRECTORY.—Messrs. S. G. Hall and E. S. Warrock are making arrangements for publishing a full and complete Directory of the City. Instead of the "History of Wilmington from its commencement," it is the intention of the publishers to present a comprehensive and concise article on the commerce and business interests of the City; also, a description of the Churches, Schools, Public Buildings Hotels, Railroads and Steamboat lines, &c. &c.

This Directory will be issued by the Fair in November, will be printed in

There has not been a time when a correct Directory of the City was more needed than at present, and we have no doubt but that our business men will promptly embrace the opportunity of liberally patronizing a work which will tend so much to their interest.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.—A special meeting of the Board was held last night. Present, the Mayor, and Aldermen Moore, Adrian, Fishblate, Hankins and Brewington.

The petition of P. Murphy in relation to a wooden addition to the store on the south-east corner of Front and Princess streets, was granted.

Petition of J. J. Hines for permission to erect a shed in the rear of his store, was referred to the Committee on Fire Department with power to act.

The bid of Mr. Lanahan for abutments of bridge on Fourth street was referred to the Committee on Streets and Wharves.

A communication from J. W. Scarborough and others, concerning Officer McKenzie, was referred to the Committee on Police.

A communication from E. Kidder & Sons, in relation to Water Works, was referred to the Committee on Streets and Wharves.

Petition of John L. Cantwell and others, for a lamp on the corner of Eighth and Princess streets, was referred to the Committee on Lights.

A petition of John G. Darden, against selling liquor in the neighborhood of Eighth and Wooster streets, was referred to the Committee on Police.

In relation to the return of the assessors appointed to assess the Wilmington and Seaside Railway, the Clerk was instructed to place it upon the tax books.

A petition from the Board of Underwriters in regard to the proposed Water Works was read, and on motion referred to a special committee of two to investigate and report at the next meeting of the Board. Aldermen Moore and Fishblate were appointed said committee.

The matter of police uniforms was referred to the Committee on Police with instructions to report at the next regular meeting.

The bill of Col. Davis, in reference to the sewer in Toomer's alley, was referred to the Committee on Streets and Wharves.

The request of Chief Engineer Robinson, of the Fire Department, for hose and other material, was referred to the Committee on Fire Department, with power to act.

The Board adjourned to the regular meeting, being the third Friday in this month.

General Strother "Port Crayon," has a handsome residence in Berkeley.

John Hoey is to present the ground for the new Roman Catholic Church at Long Branch.

Bergh, it is said, intends to arrest for cruelty to animals any man who persists in "throwing physic to the dogs."

Miss Annie M. Howe is to be Preceptress of Xenia (Ohio) College. Her precepts may be all right, but how's her practice?

STATE ITEMS.

Raleigh wants more light.

And now Greensboro' wants to have a Fair.

The crime of larceny is largely on the increase in Wake county.

Wadesboro' sells fresh and young beef at 7 and 8 cents per pound.

There are one hundred and ten pupils at the Greensboro' Female College.

There are twenty-one inmates of the Raleigh jail—five females, and sixteen of the rougher sex.

The approaching State Fair at Raleigh promises to be the grandest that ever occurred in North Carolina.

The Oak City Grays, a colored military company of Raleigh, have perfected their organization, and elected their officers.

The sale of ice in Raleigh has fallen off from five thousand pounds sold on July 4th, to only three hundred pounds sold September 10th.

The barn of Mr. George Godfrey, of Northampton county, was burned by the torch of the incendiary last week, and three horses perished in the flames.

Greensboro' brags of having, in addition to its Grange of Husbandry, and its Beer Association, a society for the mutual protection of washerwomen and cooks.

The walls and fences of Raleigh are being adorned with the mammoth posters and show bills of the Great Eastern Circus, that is expected to be there early in October.

The News says: The Secretary of the State Fair is daily in receipt of letters from other States asking for copies of the premium list. It is evident that the approaching Fair will be unsurpassed by any other in the country.

The Raleigh Era is a go-ahead paper, and no mistake. In its last issue it calls attention to the fact that in that issue it presents an item or items of news and information from every county in the State, something probably never before done in any North Carolina paper. The Era is read in every county of the State, and it is appropriate and proper that it should convey news from every county.

The Raleigh Era says: The County Commissioners of Wake county have passed a resolution repudiating the county scrip, and refusing to take the same for taxes. As well might they order the Sheriff not to take a legal tender greenback. Their action in this matter is a fizzle, and their efforts to do a smart thing futile. Commissioner Todd conceived this brilliant idea of county repudiation. Now if the Sheriff refuses to take county claims in payment for taxes, let all holders of county paper resist payment, and see where Commissioner Todd and his wise Board stands.

The Raleigh News is informed by Governor Caldwell that Revenue officer Deaver and party were fired upon on Saturday last, in South Mountain, Burke county, by a party lying in ambush. None of the party fired on, we believe, were hurt, but were obliged to beat a retreat. Deaver has asked for assistance at the hands of the Government to enforce the law in that section of the country. Had any of the scoundrels that fired on the Deaver party been shot and killed by those that they made this unprovoked and murderous assault upon, the News would have raised a hue and cry to have had them tried for murder.

The Patrons of Husbandry have built a large grain warehouse at Blairstown, Iowa, and will ship large quantities of grain to Chicago this season.

John Williams, of DuBuke, an inveterate toper, has given up drinking at the age of forty. He mistook a bottle of corrosive sublimate for whiskey.

The tract ceeded by the Crows to the United States amounts to between six and seven million acres, a great portion of it being exceedingly fine land.

The puddlers' strike at Troy, N. Y., has continued already eleven weeks, and prospects of an amicable settlement are by no means as good as they were a month ago.

At the fire on Sunday morning a Danbury man, in the excitement of the hour, shouted "Keno," instead of "fire," and his wife wants to know where he was the night before.

A brother in a Thursday night prayer meeting at LaCrosse, added to his prayer: "And that fellow who stole my horse—hit him with a thunderbolt before he gets over into Iowa."

A man in Yates county, N. Y., who has been an inveterate smoker for fifty years, has suddenly and permanently given it up. He knocked the ashes off his pipe into a keg of blasting powder.

A Connecticut admirer of Alexander Stephens wrote to him asking him if sassafras was good for the blood, and Mr. Stephens wrote back on sixteen pages of note paper that it was.

A Down East Yankee who has invented a machine for hiving mosquitoes, was lately experimenting on Staten Island, when these varmints seized his instrument and flew away with it, heading for the Jersey shore.

PROSPECTUS.

THE EVENING POST.

J. C. MANN,

EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

Published every evening, except Sunday, at Five Dollars per Annum.

The POST is designed to reach all classes of citizens, and its subscription price is therefore placed so low as to be within the reach of all. It contains the up to the time of going to press,

TELEGRAPHIC,
BY MAIL,
COMMERCIAL AND LOCAL.

It should be in the hands of every man who desires to know what has transpired during the day, and, as it aims to give its publisher hopes it will prove a welcome guest in many families.

THE POST

is sprightly without being sensational, and it carefully excludes all objectionable incidents and reports calculated to offend the sensibilities of the most fastidious. As an

Advertising Medium

it claims to be first class. It has a good and constantly increasing circulation, and is read by almost every business man in the city. Politically the POST is UNSWERVINGLY REPUBLICAN.

Its editor having been a consistent member of that party since 1855, through its vicisitudes and triumphs, he claims to speak advisedly when advocating its principles. He is not, however an "extremist," and accords to others what he claims for himself, the right of free thought and of free speech.

THE ADVERTISING RATES of the POST, like its subscription price, are at liberal and at living prices, as an examination of them will show, and it bespeaks a share of public patronage.

THE EVENING POST

is closely identified with the local welfare of the Cape Fear region, and the believers in progress, whether

EDUCATIONAL,
AGRICULTURAL,
MECHANICAL, or COMMERCIAL,

will find an enthusiastic ally in THE POST.

THE POST

is opposed to monopolies, but in favor of internal improvements, and a firm believer in the patronage and support of home enterprises and institutions.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

In accordance with our last prospectus, the specially reduced rates for 1872, viz: Weekly, per year.....$1 00 Semi-Weekly, per year..... 2 50 will be maintained for all new subscribers, and all old subscribers renewing prior to the 15th day of January, 1873, when the above Club rates will take effect.

THE NEW YORK WEEKLY TIMES Will contain Selected Editorials from the Daily Times; General News, Domestic and Foreign; The Proceedings of Congress and the State Legislatures; Full and Interesting Correspondence; Book Reviews; The Choicest Literary Selections; while its most prominent feature will be a COMPLETE AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT, with original articles from practical farmers; full reports of the American Institute Farmers' Club; complete weekly market reports; financial, domestic produce, live stock, dry goods and general.

AS A FAMILY PAPER,

The TIMES will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL,

The TIMES will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The TIMES stood alone in demanding Reform from 1869 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the TIMES. But it will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity.

It will sustain, with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES

Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly TIMES: One copy, one year. $3; two copies, one year, $5; ten copies, one year, $25—and one extra copy free.

Subscriptions to either of our editions received for a less length of time than one year at yearly rate.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post-office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured, send the money in a registered letter. All Post-masters are obliged to register letters when requested to do so, and the system is an absolute protection against losses by mail. Address

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint:

C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted. and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, Creswell P. O., Hartford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873. A. H. STRASBAUGH.

THE PLAINS, FAUQUIER CO., VA., Feb. 6th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks, (not constant work,) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, and body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you,) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly, S. McGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and soda are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as sound and fresh as when put on. Of the numerous advantages it possesses over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate.

WM. E. SINN,
Front Street Theatre.

BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873.

CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1872.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found the most deception.

Yours, truly,
JACOB STOUFFER & SON.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED.

Mr. C. P. Knight:—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is freer from disagreeable odor.

Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED.

BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1871.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint we purchased from you we will cheefully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used; its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. This is our experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work.

Very Respectfully, EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St.
House, Sign and Frescoe Painters.

PLEASANTVILLE, HARTFORD CO., MD.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other.

Very Respetfully, R. DICKEY, M. D.

Harper's Magazine.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly, proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs.—Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it as one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.
